Rules & Regulations

- Every player must be a certified Law Enforcement Officer, currently employed by a governmental law enforcement agency, Police officer, Sheriff Deputy, State Trooper, Federal Marshall, DEA, Corrections Officers, etc... We will check all picture ID's to ensure that every player is in fact a law enforcement officer. The Bacon Ball Committee has the discretion to ask any player for credentials at any time during the tournament. Please get the talent from within.

- There will be a 1-hour or 7-inning time limit, whichever comes first. (Except the games in the Championship round, which will have no time limit.)

- The batter will begin with a 1&1 count and a courtesy foul.

- There will be a 6 home run limit with the one up rule. Every home run over the limit is an out.

- There is a "20 run rule" after 3 innings, "15 run rule" after four innings, and a "10 run rule" after five innings.

- No metal spikes, illegal bats or balls. We will be using modified USSSA rules. Go to the USSSA website for an updated list of illegal bats

- We will provide 44 cor softballs, at cost, to each team. These will be the only balls allowed.

- Umpire decisions are FINAL- this is why they are paid. If anyone has a protest, please take it up with the Bacon Ball Committee at the post-tournament party. We will be glad to listen although it will do you no good. If the Umpire chooses to ask for assistance, a decision will be made by the umpire and Bacon Ball Committee.

- Home team will be decided each game with a coin toss.

- We will have a pool play format.

- Extra Innings or tie breakers begin with two outs and the last out made on second base.

- Courtesy runners are allowed. Runner must be last out made during inning.

- Substitutions are allowed. Re-entry is allowed but player must re-enter for player he/she was replaced by. Each player can re-enter only once. Any player may re-enter in any position in the case of an injury and the team has no other players available on the bench.

- Any additional rules that may have been left out will be given to your team at the bracket announcing party.
